THE State Medical Society of Wisconsin met in its Forty-fourth Annual Session, in the Common Council Chambers of the City of Milwaukee, on Wednesday, June 4th, at 8 o'clock, P. M. The Society having been called to order by Dr. W. T. Sarles, the first Vice President, the proceedings were opened with prayer, offered by Rev. A. A. Kiehle. President E. M. Rogers, of Hartford, then delivered the annual address, the title of which was "A Sketch of the Progress of Medicine and Surgery." It was a brief but comprehensive outline of the remarkable advances in the science and art of surgery and medicine, with instructive comparisons between the old methods and new. At the conclusion of the address, which was listened to with marked attention, upon motion of Dr. G. D. Ladd the Society returned a vote of thanks to Dr. Rogers for his very able and interesting address, and it was referred to the Committee on Publication. The address is printed as Article II. The President called upon the Committee of Arrangement for their announcements and recommendations for the future sessions of the Society, and Dr. Walbridge, the Chairman, made the following report, which was accepted and adopted, upon motion of Dr. Puls: In behalf of the Committee of Arrangement, I wish to submit the following: The hours of meeting we would recommend to be from 9 o'clock in the morning until noon, and from 2 until 6 in the afternoon. We would recommend that there be no evening session after this evening. Let the first hour of each session be devoted to the general business of the Society, including the Censors' report, and the election of officers be the first business of the afternoon's session of Thursday, the 5th of June. This has generally been postponed until the last hour of the last day; and, usually, at that time, the...
